- C2:

Data security, EITA25 with D3 - As mentioned in previous meeting, signing up to labs is still done through an unprotected excel sheet.

- D2:

Nothing special of note, the courses are continuing as expected.

- C3:

Nothing of note on the whole, everything is going well.

Interaction Design, MAMA20: The first project requires the use of an android environment, with only 20 phones physically available. Despite being an individual project you sometimes have to share phones which can be inconvenient.

- D3:

Most of the courses are taken together with D2. Nothing special of note.

- VR/AR:

Most of the courses are fine, universal design TNSF10 however, is two courses put together, which can become much to deal with. The course is taken together with industrial design students. As the teacher is not yet used to canvas, it has lead to notification spam and confusing deadlines at times.

- Other courses: Nothing of note.

§8 Dismissal of Volunteers

No one to dismiss.

§9 Nominations and other Electoral matters

The following positions are still vacant:

- Class Representative C3

If you want to run for any of the positions, it is possible to do so during any ordinary SRD-meeting.

No nominations or other Electoral matters.

§10 Other Matters

It was discussed whether class representatives should potentially communicate more closely with the class representatives. Most of the time, they are one and the same. However, that is not always the case.

One way to encourage people to fill out CEQs is to communicate via common discord channels.

Sometimes the CEQ meeting is held past the deadline for adding comments for the course. One alternative to exclusively communicate via the CEQs is to arrange lunch meetings earlier with course administrator to get a head start on the issues.
